

Alexandre Almeida

Universidade de Aveiro, Portugal

Nonstandard weights and applications

In this talk, we discuss some results on power weights with nonstandard growth, including their connection within generalized Muckenhoupt classes. Moreover, we consider some related variable exponent function spaces and discuss the role of uniform weighted norm inequalities in the study of mapping properties of some classical operators in this setting.

This is based on joint work with H. Rafeiro (Al Ain, UAE).