

Lauri Särkiö

Aalto University, Finland

Higher integrability of parabolic double-phase systems

Elliptic double-phase problems of p -Laplace type have been studied extensively in recent years and their regularity properties are well understood. In this talk, we discuss the corresponding theory for parabolic problems, with our focus being on the higher integrability of the spatial gradient.